COMMANDERS COMMENTS

My fellow Legionaries: What wacky weather this winter. One day in January or February your out walking down town or on the boardwalk then the next your slip sliding on snow and ice. Well here we are in March spring is right around the corner and baseball is starting' everything is gooooooood. Chili cook off was a great success again this year. I want to thank my co-chairman Mike Zeef for the great job he did alone since I was out sick, Thanks Mike. Andy and his crew for handling all the beverages, Bruce Chase and his crew for taking care of our great raffle, Julie and her JUDGES, Ed Smith and Grand Transformers for the Grill raffle. A big thank you to one of our members who donated 4 front row seats for the Red Wings. And of course our very own MC Big Bill Kauffman. I hope everyone had a great time. Well with the warmer weather coming we can expect the road work to start up again. I'm sure there will be signs, but there should not be a problem getting to our Post like we had in the fall. Coming up in March is the Legion Birthday Party on the 17th. Cocktails at 6:30 and dinner at 7:00 tickets are available at the bar. Next month our First Vice Commander Ron Bauer will conduct his first meeting as is tradition at Post 28. Please come out and support him. Our next District meeting is March 8th at Grandville Post 179, I hope to see some of you there. Until next month, I'll see you at the Post. Phil Smith Commander Post# 28.

March Madness will be upon us within the next several weeks. Be sure to support your local Girls and Boys Basketball teams. Let the second season begin!!!

I want to thank Tom Glockzin for his work on Vega Night. He enlisted all of the dealers and set the two shift schedule of workers that made this a great event. It was well organized and we appreciated the many hours he devoted to this event.
